Brass City Visitors Inspect Paving.

Mayor Francis T. Reeves and the street committee of the Waterbury common council were in Willimantic Saturday and called on Mayor D. P.
Dunn. During the party's stay in this city they were shown the block paving on Main street by Mayor Dunn and the members expressed themselves as favorably impressed with the appearance of the street. At a recent meeting of the Waterbury common council it was voted to put $25,000 into block pavement in that city. The Waterbury gentlemen left this city at noon by automobile for Oneco to inspect the granite blocks which it is proposed to purchase for the contemplated street work in the Brass City.

Foster Able to Leave Hospital.

George H. Foster, the baggagemaster running between this city and Boston, who was taken from his boarding house, The Merrill house, on Walnut street, Friday afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital suffering from the effects of tincture of arnica poisoning, left the hospital Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, practically recovered, and took his run on the afternoon train as usual.

Congregational Church to Supply

Christmas Cheer for the Needy.
The First Congregational church will, as usual, do something for the poor of the city on Christmas day.
It is intended to have six automobiles, laden with good things to eat and various gifts, call at the homes of the poorer ones and leave these gifts to be enjoyed by the members of the different families. A great deal of work was done by the church last year in practically this same way and it is the earnest desire of the women and men of the church to do even more this year, if possible.

New a Traveling Salesman.

Robert H. Ford of Boston, familiarly known as "Bob" when he was a resident here nineteen years ago, in spending the holidays with relatives in town, Mr. Ford was the first baseball man on ex-Foster O. Tanner's baseball nine in 1894. He is now traveling salesman for the Federal Milling Co. of Lockport, N. Y.

Probate Business.

Judge Clarence E. Chester of the probate court of Chaplin on Friday granted letters of administration on the estate of the late Althea Lyons to Mrs. Robert Ingersoll of New York city, a niece of the deceased. The hearing on the estate of the late W. H.
Hall in Chaplin will be held before Judge Chester, Saturday morning, Dec.
28, at 9 o'clock.

A Good Record for City.

There was no session of the police court Saturday morning.

Christmas Tree for G. F. S.

The Girls' Friendly society of St.
Paul's Episcopal church has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Branch secretary, Mrs. C. E.
Lovett; recording secretary, Miss Helen Littleick; treasurer, Miss Grace Edmonds; pianist, Miss Helen Bradshaw. On Thursday, December 26, the members of the society will have their Christmas tree at the parish house.

Exercises of Die Besserung.

The following programme was rendered by Die Besserung at the Windham High school Friday afternoon: Vocal solo, Miss Myra Wallen, '13; recitation, Miss Norberta Smith, '16; mandolin duet, Maurice Jordan, '16 and Kenneth Harbourn, '14. At the close of the programme the Anna Mater song was sung by the entire school chorus.

Local Notes.

the Central Vermont railroad at Palmer, Mass., was in the city Saturday afternoon calling on friends.

The American Thread company purchased 5,000 Red Cross stamps this year, which is an annual custom.
These stamps were affixed to the pay envelopes at the local mills the past two weeks.

The funeral of Mrs. John Morizer was held Saturday morning with funeral mass at St. Joseph's church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Philip J. Mooney, assistant pastor, was the officiating clergyman. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery.

at the local plant of the American Thread company, left Saturday to spend Christmas at her home in Milford, Mass.

JEWETT CITY.

Students Home for the Holiday Recess —How the Churches Observed Christmas Sunday.

Miss Marian Paul of Rock Fall, Conn., Miss Dorothea Burleson of New Britain Normal school, Miss Hattie Burleson of East Orange N. J. are at home for two weeks.

Experience Social.
The Ladies' society of the Congregational church held an experience social in the vestry last week which was largely attended. Each lady who had earned a dollar told in what way she earned it, some of the stories being in poetry. Several were not able to be present, so the sum of money was not complete. The committees were appointed for the New Year's gathering.
The directresses of the society to have charge of the refreshments, the pastor and wife and the deacons and their wives the reception committee, Mrs.
G. A. Haskell chairman of the programme committee, and Miss S. R.
Adams of the invitation committee.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Haskell served the refreshments, which closed the evening's entertainment.

On Holiday Outings.

Mrs. Harry Wilcox and children are in Leffwax for a week.

Fred S. Campbell went Saturday to Bayonne, L. I., to spend a week with his son, Howard Campbell.

Miss S. K. Adams was in charge of the reading room at Slater library Sunday afternoon.

Miss Marian Tracy is at home from Hartford for the Christmas vacation.
